

To Be a Sentence, or Not to Be...

Name _____

Read each item below and decide whether it is a complete sentence, a run-on, or a fragment. Write in the blank which of the above categories the item falls under. If it is a run-on or fragment, make corrections necessary to make it a complete sentence.

- _____ 1. I watched.
- _____ 2. My television was on for several hours last night and Star Trek came on for a long marathon of ten episodes tonight and tomorrow there will be ten more episodes.
- _____ 3. My favorite show, Star Trek.
- _____ 4. Last night on Star Trek, Mr. Spock put the Vulcan neck pinch on someone.
- _____ 5. Vulcans on the show.
- _____ 6. The humans on Star Trek aren't as interesting as the aliens.
- _____ 7. All Vulcans have green blood and use impeccable logic at all times even when everyone else around them is thinking or acting crazy.
- _____ 8. Vulcans are interesting but unusual and emotionless but not unlikable.
- _____ 9. Through the galaxy, between solar systems, among the stars, the Enterprise.
- _____ 10. A good science fiction show on television.
- _____ 11. Vulcans are intelligent.
- _____ 12. One time on Star Trek, Gary Seven, an agent from Earth's future, tried to sabotage an early Sixties rocket launch in order to prevent World War III.
- _____ 13. But failed.
- _____ 14. Mr. Spock neck-pinchd a guy and beamed back to the Enterprise Kirk was with him.
- _____ 15. The president was called he couldn't do anything to help.
- _____ 16. Only Kirk and Spock could save the day.
- _____ 17. Gary Seven's cat was with him the whole time her name was Isis.
- _____ 18. Spock's logic, impeccable as it was.
- _____ 19. The warhead was detonated at 104 miles above ground.
- _____ 20. Mr. Seven and Isis left.