

I Now Subject You to Subject and Verb Finding...

Name _____

Read each of the sentences below. Circle the complete subject and underline the complete predicate.

1. Dandelions are yellow weeds.
2. Hyacinths come in many sizes and colors.
3. Of all the flowers around, my favorite is the hyacinth.
4. Yesterday I planted tulips, irises, daffodils, and hyacinths in the garden.
5. On planet Earth, all plants require carbon dioxide.
6. Carbon dioxide, poisonous to humans, is required for food production in plants.
7. Oxygen, a necessary element for all human and animal life, is given off by the plant as a by-product in food production.
8. Without oxygen, people and animals would die.
9. In some ecosystems, such as aquatic and marine environments, plants live under water.
10. An example of a marine plant is seaweed.
11. Seaweed is used in many food items.
12. Ice cream has seaweed in it.
13. The seaweed might have been used in other food products too.
14. Trees can make paper, build houses, and provide shade to people.
15. Oaks, elms, pines, and firs are all trees.
16. Hungry are the plant-eating animals.
17. Here are some more trees.
18. Strange plants live in caves.
19. Found in caves are fungi.
20. Mushrooms and other strange plants constitute fungi.

Extra credit: 5 points

21. Watch out, spelunkers!