

To Be a Sentence, or Not to Be a Sentence, Part II

Name _____

Read each item below and decide whether it is a sentence, a run-on, or a fragment. Write in the blank which of the above categories the item falls under.

- _____ 1. My favorite place to go is the beach I always have a great time there.
- _____ 2. You can imagine what it is like the wind on your face, and the cool water splashes your toes.
- _____ 3. Warm sun on your face.
- _____ 4. Feels like the warmest thing I have ever felt.
- _____ 5. The last time I went to the beach was in 1999.
- _____ 6. We went to the New Jersey shore once, and I got a bad sunburn.
- _____ 7. Sunburns all over my feet, legs, arms, and back.
- _____ 8. It hurt!
- _____ 9. The airplane ride up there was not too bad there weren't any delays.
- _____ 10. It was sunny the entire trip, and we enjoyed every bit of it.

I Now Subject You to MORE Subject and Verb Finding...

Name _____

Read each of the sentences below. Circle the complete subject and underline the complete predicate.

1. I love every different color, size, and shape of book on the planet.
2. In the beginning of the school year, we took tests in the computer lab.
3. These tests told us our reading levels.
4. The teacher assigned each of us a certain number of points for our reading goal.
5. In reading class, we are reading a lot of wonderful Accelerated Reader books.
6. Upon completion of a book, we take an AR test.
7. Fun are these tests!
8. They continually challenge us.
9. At the end of the year, we will have an AR party for goal-meeting individuals.
10. Very happy are those chosen few.

Extra credit:

Stop bothering me!